PROFILE

MAJ GEN NEERAJ BALI, SENA MEDAL (RETD)

Maj Gen Neeraj Bali, Sena Medal, is an Indian Army veteran, a teacher-trainer, a corporate professional, a TEDx speaker and the author of the bestselling book The Winning Culture: Lessons from the Indian Army to Transform Your Business.

During his Army service, he served in J&K for ten years and on all the borders multiple times. He commanded a Rashtriya Rifles Battalion in J&K at the height of terrorism and was awarded the Sena Medal. As a Brigadier, he led the first strategic-level Indo-US exercise held in Hawaii, USA, where the US Army invited him to mentor US and Indian brigades. He served in Southern Africa as the Security Advisor to the Government of Lesotho and Leader of the Indian Army Training Team in that country.

A corporate professional post-retirement, he has been CEO of a leading Engineering PMC Company with over 100 major infrastructure projects in India and abroad. He was also CEO of a rural education society that ran 92 schools and colleges in Maharashtra with 42,000 students. Currently, he is senior management advisor to Dynamic Cables Ltd, a leading cable manufacturing company.

As a trainer, he has taught in the Infantry School at Mhow, the Defence Services Staff College at Wellington, and the Army War College at Mhow. He is a Senior Partner and faculty member for the School of Inspirational Leadership, Pune. He is also a teaching faculty member of the Institute for Competitive Intelligence, Germany, for its international workshops.

He has conceived and conducted original Leadership Development Programs (the Manager-Warrior Program), Management Development Programs (the In Command Program), and Faculty Development Programs (the Scholar Warrior Program) for several organisations, including Kirloskar Brothers, Indian Chambers of Commerce, several companies of the Indian Electrical and Electronics Association (IEEMA), Zera India, Neologic Engineers, Setco, DU Digital Global and several engineering colleges. Recently, he was a training faculty during the Indo-Pacific Armies Seminar at Fiji and Airbus, Toulouse France.

A professional speaker, he has delivered talks on strategy, geopolitics, organisational culture, leadership and competitive intelligence on several prestigious forums. These include Microsoft India, Tata Motors, the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, Strategic Competitive Intelligence Professionals summits in Atlanta, US and Cascais Portugal, Institute of Competitive Intelligence conference in Germany, CXO conference of Tata Sons, senior leadership of HDFC, Infosys, CII, Wipro and Kirloskar Brothers, to name a few.

He holds an M.Sc and M.Phil in Defence Studies from Madras University and DAVV, Indore, respectively. He is also an alumnus of the prestigious Asia Pacific Centre of Security Studies in Honolulu, USA. He is also a qualified Independent Director and an ISO Lead Auditor for Occupational Health and Safety. He is a certified Life Coach and Leadership Coach.

Outcome of the Event

The Young Orators Club successfully organized a powerful and thought-provoking session titled "Life and Leadership Lessons from the Battlefield", led by a decorated military veteran and dynamic entrepreneur. The event attracted an eager and engaged audience of students who were deeply inspired by the speaker's wisdom, drawn from decades of service in high-pressure combat zones and the boardrooms of the corporate world.

This session was not just a talk—it was a transformative leadership masterclass. With compelling battlefield anecdotes, sharp insights, and honest reflections, the guest speaker broke down complex leadership challenges into relatable life lessons. The interactive Q/A session added immense value, allowing students to seek personal guidance on real-world dilemmas, ranging from decision-making to character-building.

This initiative reflects the Young Orators Club's core mission: to empower students with the confidence to lead, the clarity to communicate, and the courage to stand tall in the face of adversity.

Key Takeaways from His Inspiring Talk Include:

1. Lead by Example – True leadership is demonstrated through actions, not just words.
2. Have a Burning Desire to Win – Unwavering determination and focus drive success.
3. Understand Your Values and Role – Purpose and self-awareness are the cornerstones of effective leadership.
4. Just Being good is not good enough – Always aim for excellence in everything you do.

Other Notable Learnings:

- Strategic thinking under pressure – Students learned how to stay calm and focused while making critical decisions.
- Power of resilience – Real stories of bouncing back from adversity offered practical models of mental toughness.
- Servant leadership – The idea that great leaders serve their people, not the other way around, struck a chord with many.
- Communication with clarity and intent – The session emphasized that how you speak is as important as what you say—essential for young orators.

This event reaffirmed that leadership is not confined to titles or positions—it is a mindset, a responsibility, and a lifelong journey. The Young Orators Club takes pride in delivering such impactful experiences and will continue to be a platform where voices are not only heard but also shaped into instruments of change.
