Minute to Minute Schedule

Event/Activity Name: Just A Minute

Date: 24th September 2024

Department Name: B.E. First Year, (Academic Unit -2)

Coordinator Name: Swarnima Sharma

Brief Description: The individual is given a minute to express their views on the topic given on the spot. It might seem like something easy and fluent, but what makes it difficult is nervousness, fear of failure, the strangers sitting in front of you, the evaluation process, limited knowledge, the inability to think on your feet, filler words, and the long pauses.

Executive Summary

This report provides a succinct overview and insight of the JAM (Just-A-Minute): Your 60 Second Spotlight organized by the Young Orators Club (YOC). The event aimed to foster creative and Spontaneous Thinking, Awareness of the errors in the opponent and Fluency while enhancing students' public speaking skills.

The event attracted over 130 students who were divided into groups of 6 each and made to give their best in front of the JAMGOD.

The event was managed with precision, from organized registrations to adherence to the schedule. The Finance team effectively handled budget management, ensuring proper resource allocation. The C3 Seminar Hall was prepared efficiently, providing an ideal venue. Overall, the event was highly successful, marked by strong organizational execution, active participation, and positive feedback, further solidifying YOC's reputation as a premier platform for developing public speaking and leadership skills.

Objectives

The objectives of a JAM(Just-A-Minute) competition was to test participants' ability to speak fluently, think quickly, and express ideas coherently within a limited timeframe. Key objectives include:

1. Developing Spontaneity: Encourages participants to think on their feet and articulate thoughts without hesitation.
2. Improving Fluency: Promotes smooth and continuous speech, enhancing language fluency and vocabulary usage. Non-Stop sentence Framing and no repetition of sentences was a true test to the testimony to the fluency of the participants.
3. Enhancing Confidence: Builds self-confidence by requiring participants to speak in front of an audience with minimal preparation. Totally Involved mentally into the event , the particiapnts had no moment to focus on the Spectators and gave their full into the competition which boosted theor confidence.
4. Fostering Listening Skills: Encourages attentive listening to spot mistakes, as other participants can challenge any hesitations, repetitions, or deviations. The JAM was never just about speaking , but also to lend your ears and carefully pay attention the Opponent and to Catch Up and Mistake or error in his part , the Participants were awarded extra points for the same .
5. Promoting Clarity and Coherence: Tests the ability to communicate ideas clearly and logically without straying from the topic. Sentence fillers and Gaps between the sentences were A Red point for the participants.
6. Encouraging Fair Play: Develops sportsmanship, as participants must challenge errors respectfully and accept others' challenges with grace. Participants took the competition in a very healthy way leading to new bonds being built between them

Overview of the Event

JAM (Just-A-Minute): Your 60 Second Spotlight

Purpose: The purpose of the JAM (Just-A-Minute) Competition is to develop and assess a participant's ability to think and speak on their feet, enhancing their overall communication skills. Specifically, the competition aims to:

1. Improve Public Speaking Skills

- The competition encourages participants to speak confidently in front of an audience, fostering better public speaking abilities.

2. Enhance Quick Thinking

- As participants are given topics on the spot, they must organize their thoughts quickly and coherently, which hones their ability to think under pressure.

3. Encourage Fluency and Articulation

- The challenge of speaking without hesitation or repetition helps participants improve their fluency, pronunciation, and overall speech delivery.

4. Boost Confidence

- By participating in a timed, competitive event, contestants gain self-assurance in their speaking abilities, which can carry over into other areas of life, including interviews, presentations, and social interactions.

5. Promote Creativity and Originality

- Since the topics can be abstract or unusual, participants are encouraged to think creatively, offering unique insights or humorous takes on the subject matter.

6. Develop Time Management Skills

- The strict one-minute time limit teaches participants to manage their thoughts and words efficiently, ensuring they convey a complete and meaningful message within the given time.

7. Foster Healthy Competition

- The competitive element pushes participants to perform at their best while promoting a spirit of camaraderie and sportsmanship among peers.

This competition, therefore, serves not just as a test of speaking ability, but as a comprehensive exercise in developing valuable life skills.

Opening: The “JAM (Just-A-Minute): ” event was a competition to improve the fluency , spontaneous idea creation , eradicating the hesitation and bring the best of the Public Speakers of the participants . Outcome of the Event

The Just-A-Minute (JAM) 1.0 competition, organized by the Young Orators Club on 24th September 2024, was a resounding success. This event provided participants with the perfect opportunity to develop and assess their ability to think and speak on their feet while fostering essential communication skills.

Key Outcomes:

- High Participation: Over 80 students from different departments showcased their public speaking abilities, each delivering impromptu speeches on a wide range of topics within a strict 60-second time frame.
- Skill Development:
 - Improved Public Speaking: Participants gained valuable experience in speaking confidently in front of an audience, building their overall public speaking skills.
 - Enhanced Quick Thinking: With topics given on the spot, participants demonstrated their ability to organize thoughts quickly and coherently under pressure.
 - Fluency and Articulation: The challenge of speaking without hesitation or repetition helped participants refine their fluency and pronunciation, leading to a more effective delivery.
- Boosted Confidence: The timed nature of the competition pushed participants to perform under pressure, resulting in increased self-assurance that will benefit them in other areas of life such as interviews and presentations.
- Promoted Creativity and Originality: The abstract and unique topics encouraged participants to think creatively and present their own unique perspectives on the subject matter, often with humor and originality.
- Time Management Skills: Participants learned to manage their thoughts efficiently within the one-minute time limit, ensuring they conveyed meaningful messages in a concise manner.
- Fostered Healthy Competition: The competitive yet friendly atmosphere encouraged participants to perform at their best while also promoting camaraderie and sportsmanship.
- Judging & Recognition: The event was judged by a panel of experts who evaluated the participants on coherence, creativity, and speech delivery. The top 3 winners were awarded medals and certificates, while all participants received participation certificates.
- Audience Engagement: The event was attended by a large crowd of students and faculty who were actively engaged, contributing to the lively and supportive environment.
- Positive Feedback: Both participants and the audience provided positive feedback, praising the opportunity to engage in spontaneous speaking and the development of quick thinking and speaking skills.

The JAM (Just-A-Minute) 1.0 competition successfully achieved its goal of developing quick thinking, public speaking, and time management skills while fostering creativity and confidence. The Young Orators Club looks forward to hosting more such impactful events in the future.
